BOSTON, October 2.—The Red Sox won a lazy game from the Yankees to-day, 11 to 5. One of the Braves Backstops

Hank Gowdy
Third Underwood's new mascot

When Johnny McGraw sent Hank, with Josh Devore, to Boston as a result of a baseball deal, Hank vowed a vengeance. He planned a revenge that would make the doughty little general of the Giants sorry that he had ever sent Hank, and his revenge has worked out just as he had planned it.

From the time he reached Boston and was given his try-out, Hank worked like a Trojan to prove to Johnny McGraw, and not so much to his own manager, what a mistake was made by sending Hank out of the Giants' make-up. Boston is the second big team job Hank, whose baptismal name is Henry M., has had since he made his first appearance with the Giants. He is a great backstop, a good hitter and a fast runner, and before he is much older (he was born in 1890 at Columbus, Ohio) he will be one of the famous backstops of the national game.

BLACKSBURG, VA., October 2.—The V. P. L. football team is in fine fighting trim and ready to take the field against Randolph-Macon College to-morrow, with every indication of success. From end to end the line will average 175 pounds, with three good men for every position. And the backfield, although ten pounds lighter, is fast and aggressive.

Savage, who has been playing a star game at center, will probably start at that position to-morrow. Henderson, who has been playing a star game at center, will probably start at that position to-morrow. After the matches dinner will be served at the country club in honor of the visiting players. Those attending the dinner will be the members of the two teams, and Fred G. Pollard and William R. Walker of the Country Club Tennis Committee.

Field Day of Warrenton Hunt Club October 15
WARRENTON, VA., October 2.—With the opening of the hunting season in Virginia, the Warrenton Hunt will hold its annual field day exercises on October 15, consisting of steeplechases, fox hunting and training, and keeps the building up to date. Away to a good break, the Louis gelding took the winner, and never faltered, making each post a jumping one.

James Butler, the New York millionaire, sent Kelly-Kenny Boy to the post in the fifth event, and he won handsomely from a fair lot of sprites. This is the fourth straight victory in two days for Butler, he having won every race, and started a horse in Uncle Sam's winner of the first race, was boosted from $500 to $1,500 and retained by his owner, H. C. Hallenback, white gelding was boosted from $300 to $500, and likewise retained by his owner.

Word was received at the track to-day that Harry Payne Whitney's horses, who have been racing in France, will be shipped to America to be raced here. The stable includes sixteen yearlings and nineteen horses.
